

NEW PROGRAM ANNOUNCEMENT

Getting ready for International language testing Program at ELRC

The English Language Resource Centre (ELRC) of Sokoine University of Agriculture is pleased to announce its new program known as 'Getting ready for International language testing (ILT)'. This program intends to cater for the needs of candidates who look forward to sitting for International Language Tests at various centers within and outside the country. These tests are an essential part of admission requirements to various universities across the globe. The Program also caters for candidates who intend to join various universities in Tanzania, migrate or travel to other countries for any other purposes all. The main exam types include but not limited to

TOEFL- Test of English as a Foreign Language

IELTS - International English Language Testing System

TOEIC® - Test of English for International Communication

The 'Getting ready for International language testing (ILT)' program at ELRC is NOT for Certification but it is PRIMARILY for equipping candidates who plan to sit for these language tests elsewhere for reasons explained above.

The Centre provides participants with instructional and self-access learning opportunities through integrated technology-based resources to enable them to communicate confidently and effectively in academia through spoken and written modes.
