*Tuition fee is a sum of actual tuition fee; registration fee; supervision honorarium; examination of coursework; supervision of fieldwork; examination of dissertation, caution money, graduation fee and transcript fee.

*If teaching extends beyond one year of study, the tuition fee for the subsequent period should be calculated on the basis of the extended teaching durations and shall hence be a proportion of the respective fee of Year.

*If research forms an integral component of the extended period, the costs for the period of research shall thus be based on and be a proportion of the tuition fee of Year 2 of programs for coursework and research.

*Costs for excursions and other forms of field work shall be separate and shall hence not be considered as part of tuition fee cost line.
