PREFACE

Academic Excellency of any Institution of higher learning is embodied in the factors that influence quality of training programmes, research and public services which are the pillars of institutional missions. Academic excellency is a key factor in ensuring that SUA becomes a centre of excellence and valued member of the global academic community and in achieving this institution has striven to ensure that excellence is embodied in the quality of its staff, students, infrastructure and other components of the teaching and learning environment. The maintenance of such excellency is thus governed by the institutional vision, missions and the corporate strategic plans. It is thus of great importance to ensure quality training, research and outreach activities for the betterment of the stakeholders this institution serves. This in turn depends on the presence of a vibrant, motivated and action-oriented academic staff body.

In recognition of the above institutional obligations and in keeping with the regulations governing the terms and conditions of service made in Part III Section 20 and Part IV of the Universities Act, 2005 this fourth edition of the Up the Ladder explicitly describes the criteria and conditions for employment and engagement of the teaching staff at SUA; criteria for promotion of academic staff; rules and regulations governing Sabbatical Leave, the use of Tanzanians in the Diaspora, conditions for leave without pay; and criteria for nomination of Principals, Deans, Directors and Heads of Departments.
DEFINITION OF TERMS
In these Guidelines unless the context requires otherwise;

“Academic Staff” means Teaching Staff, Research Fellow and Librarian of the University.

“Adjunct Professor” means scientists with jobs elsewhere but hired to teach some courses on contractual basis.

“Visiting Lecturer” means a person with qualifications provided under Part 1 subsection 3.2.2, and appointed by Senate in accordance with these Guidelines.

“Visiting Professor” means a person with qualifications provided under Part 1 subsection 3.2.1, and appointed by Senate in accordance with these Guidelines.
PART ONE: RECRUITMENT AND ENGAGEMENT OF ACADEMIC STAFF

SECTION 1: RECRUITMENT OF ACADEMIC MEMBERS OF STAFF ON PERMANENT TERMS

1.1 Each Department/Institute/Centre shall establish academic posts i.e. staff recruitment projections based on major disciplines taking into account its workload in terms of teaching both at undergraduate and postgraduate levels, research, extension and consultancy work.

1.2 Departments’ recommendations for new academic posts shall be submitted through respective Faculties/Institutes/Centres for consideration by the Appointments and Human Resource Management Committee (AHRMC) (Academic) during October/November of each year.

1.3 The new positions approved by the AHRMC (Academic) shall be incorporated in the budget proposals sent to the Government by SUA.

1.4 Applicants should have a minimum GPA of 3.8 at undergraduate level. For those with Masters qualification they should have a minimum GPA of 3.8 and in addition have a minimum GPA of 3.5 at undergraduate level. Candidates with PhD qualifications should have GPA of at least 3.8 at Masters level and 3.5 at undergraduate level. For unclassified degrees as it applies with veterinary and medical graduates, they should have an average of “B” grade at undergraduate level.
1.5 The Office of the Deputy Vice Chancellor (Academic) shall advertise the vacant academic posts within and outside the University. The advertisement shall require candidates to indicate names and addresses of the current and other previous employers if applicable and names and addresses of two referees. It will thus be the responsibility of the University to solicit reference letters.

1.6 The guidelines and procedures for recruitment are as stipulated in Appendix 1. Faculty/Institute Interviewing Panel will be responsible for interviewing candidates. Interviews shall include the candidate giving a short Public Lecture (Phase 1) on an area of interest so as to judge the candidate’s ability to communicate and to undertake research activities. Academic members of staff in the Faculty/Institute/Centre shall form the audience. Thereafter, the interview panels will constitute the only audience of phase 2 of the interview. Applicants shall also undertake an English Language Proficiency Test.

1.7 Overall assessment should be summarized according to the format provided in Appendix 2.

1.8 Applicants shall be recommended in order of priority to the AHRMC (Academic), where possible, NOT more than three and NOT less than two applicants for consideration for the post(s).

SECTION 2: APPOINTMENT OF ACADEMIC MEMBERS OF STAFF ON CONTRACT TERMS

2.1 Engagement of retirees
2.1.1 Employment of SUA retirees is not an automatic process. It requires one to fulfill the needed requirements to enable him/her to be acceptable for contractual employment.

2.1.2 Retired Staff and former SUA staff intending to be employed on contract terms shall be required to apply to the Principal/Dean/Director through the Head of Department. Alternatively, the Head of Department will contact the prospective retiree or former SUA staff who shall indicate in writing his/her willingness to work on contract and apply to the Principal/Dean/Director through the Head of Department. Such applications should be made at least six months before the end of the contract or retiring.

2.1.3 The Head of Department when forwarding the application to the Principal/Dean/Director, he/she should justify the need for engagement of the staff by indicating among others the experiences on one's ethical conduct and practices (taking into account one's diligence in discharging duties, integrity, pursuit of excellence in service; impartiality in service and courtesy). Note: A special Confidential Form for engagement of retirees and former SUA staff on contract terms will be used for the purpose (Appendix 3).

2.1.4 The Principal/Dean/Director shall form a Committee of not less than 6 members out of which at least 3 members will be from the concerned Department including the Head of Department or his/her appointee and the rest from outside the Department. Members shall comprise Senior Lecturers and above and where they are not available the Principal/Dean/Director can co-opt lecturers in the exercise. Note: Declaration of Interest form shall be used in this process.

2.1.5 The Principal/Dean/Director shall appoint the Chairman of the committee.

2.1.6 The Chairman of the Committee will submit a report based on the deliberations and recommendations of the Committee to the Principal/Dean/Director. The submission should be accompanied with the minutes, one’s CV and other relevant documents.

2.1.7 The Principal/Dean/Director will then submit a report with recommendations and all relevant documents including minutes and CV to the Chair of AHRMC (Acad) through the DVC (Academic) for processing and recommendation for further action.

2.1.8 On successful completion of the contract, the staff shall be paid a gratuity as per Government and SUA Guidelines and/or Circular.

2.1.9 Other terms and conditions of employment not specifically stipulated under these guidelines shall be as provided in government requirements (standing orders, circulars, etc), SUA Charter, 2007; SUA staff Regulations, and the letter of appointment.

2.1.10 Contract staff shall be engaged for two years and renewable. The provision of clause 2.1.1 shall apply mutatis mutandis in relation to renewal of contract.

2.2 Engagement of other staff (from outside) on contract for positions created following granting of leave without pay
2.2.1 Advertisement and interview process shall be as per the procedures stated in Part One, Section 1.

2.2.2 Such staff will be employed on two-year contract and for longer periods only in cases where the staff being replaced is on leave without pay for over two years.

2.2.3 Upon the expiration of the first contract and if vacancy is still available, the staff will apply to the Head of Department for the application to be considered in the Departmental meeting. Thereafter, the Head shall recommend the same to the Chairman of AHRM (Acad) for consideration of the renewal of contract.

2.2.4 On successful completion of the contract, the staff shall be paid a gratuity as per Government Guidelines and/or Circulars.

2.2.5 Other terms and conditions of employment not specifically stipulated under these guidelines shall be as provided in government requirements (standing orders, circulars, etc), SUA Charter, 2007; SUA staff Regulations, and the letter of appointment.

SECTION 8: WORKLOAD FOR ACADEMIC MEMBERS OF STAFF

8.1 Teaching loads for academic members of staff at SUA shall not take into account the preparation time.

8.2 Teaching loads for TAs, Assistant Lecturers, Lecturers, Senior Lecturers, Associate Professor/Professor shall be 232, 290, 348, 348 and 290 hours (per 29 teaching weeks) respectively (Appendix 5). The study and examination weeks shall not be included in the calculations.

8.3 Teaching loads for Librarians shall be 87 hours for Trainee Librarian, 174 Assistant Librarian and Librarian, 203 for Senior Librarian and 116 for Associate Library Professor and Library Professor.

8.4 Teaching workloads for Research Fellows who embark in teaching shall be less than that of regular teaching staff as indicated in Appendix 5. Indeed, it is approximately 60% of the workloads for teaching staff/librarians. This in keeping with the research lead obligations and hence in support of their higher requirements in respect to publication rates. Research fellows who are not involved in teaching will be deemed to have teaching workloads of 0. Teaching loads for those with teaching tasks shall thus be 145, 174, 174 and 145 hours for Assistant Research Fellows, Research Fellows, Senior Research Fellows and Associate/Professor Research Fellows, respectively.
8.5 Teaching loads of at most one credit hour shall be for both Deputy Vice Chancellor (Academic) and Deputy Vice Chancellor (Administration and Finance)

8.6 Teaching Loads for Heads of Departments/Deputy Deans/Directors, Deans/Directors, and Deputy Vice Chancellors shall be as indicated in Appendix 5.

8.7 Factors of 1 and 0.5 shall be used in calculating lecture and practical/tutorial/seminar workloads, respectively to teaching loads.

8.8 The teaching loads constitute teaching tasks for undergraduate and postgraduate programmes but shall not involve programmes such as evening, parallel and programmes under consultancy arrangements.

8.9 In addition, teaching loads exclude time spent in supervision of special projects and postgraduate students.
PART FOUR: REVIEW OF STAFF PERFORMANCE

SECTION 9: REVIEW TEAM

9.1 College/Faculty/Institute and Departments should elect review teams of NOT more than five and not less than three members for the purpose of Staff review.

9.2 A Review Team should normally comprise senior academic members of staff. For large Departments, the Departmental Review Team will be responsible for reviewing all staff. Smaller Departments of less than five academic members of staff, the review will be done by the College/Faculty/Institute/Centre Review Team. The College/Faculty/Institute/Centre Review Teams will consider recommendations from Departmental Review Teams.

SECTION 10: CRITERIA FOR RECOGNITION OF JOURNALS/BULLETINS

10.1 All journals/bulletins shall be evaluated and registered with the University.

10.2 To be registered as a recognized journal/bulletin, the following criteria shall apply:-
   i) The journal/bulletin must have an Editorial Board whose members should be known by names.
   ii) Target readership should include tertiary and research institutions.
   iii) Types of articles should deal with basic and applied knowledge.
iv) The circulation of the journal/bulletin should be wide covering national and international boundaries.

v) The production of the journal/bulletin should be by recognized methods such as conventional printing, electronic etc.

vi) Frequency of publications should be regular.

SECTION 11: REVIEWERS OF PUBLICATIONS
11.1 For promotion to Associate Professor/Associate Research Professor/Associate Library Professor and Professor/Research Professor/Library Professor, the assessment of publications by persons academically senior to the one under review and external to the University is mandatory.

11.2 For promotion to Senior Lecturer or Senior Research Fellows and Senior Librarians the assessment of publications, books and compendia must be done by persons academically senior to the one under review within the University.

11.3 For promotion to Lecturer or Research Fellow or Librarian, all papers published in peer review journals need not be reviewed. However, proceeding papers, compendia, chapter in a book and books need to be reviewed by persons academically senior to the one under review within the University.

11.4 Journal papers published by a Tutorial Assistant need not be subjected to review but proceeding papers have to be evaluated by senior staff.

SECTION 12: ASSESSMENT OF PUBLICATIONS
Publications shall be evaluated and weighted on a point scale. For the purpose of this exercise, dissertations and research reports including project performance/evaluation reports shall not be considered for promotion. The following shall be considered during the evaluation: coverage of subject matter, originality, presentation, contribution to knowledge, relevance to academic discipline & overall quality. The evaluation should be in a descriptive form plus a summary of the report in a standard format (Appendix 6).

12.1 Papers
12.1.1 A paper in recognized journals shall score 1 unit if awarded Excellent (A), Very Good (B+) or Good (B) and 0.5 if awarded a satisfactory (C) status. One unit will be awarded to authors if a paper demonstrates multidisciplinary and/or is emanating from a known research group, the latter which comprises inter- and/or intra-discipline research partnership or linkages. Shared points will be awarded to papers that do not show the above attributes.

12.1.2 Papers graded C by reviewers will be used for promotion and in such situations a maximum of two such papers shall be used for promotion. However, papers graded C shall not be used for promotion to the ranks of Associate Professor and Professor.

12.1.3 A paper appearing in recognized proceedings of conferences, workshops, symposia and is positively evaluated (awarded Excellent, Very Good or Good) shall score 0.5 of a unit.

12.2 Books
12.2.1 Books and discipline specific dictionaries that have been published internationally or locally by a Publishing House which has Editorial Board. The book, which in addition must bear an ISBN Number, shall be evaluated and graded as follows:-

Excellent (A) = 6 Units
Very Good (B+) = 4 units
Good (B) = 3 units
Satisfactory (C) = 2 units

12.2.2 Chapters in books if positively evaluated shall be awarded as it applies with journal articles i.e. 1 unit if awarded A, B+ or B grade and 0.5 if awarded C grade.

12.2.3 Published books meant for lower cadres (Secondary Schools, diploma and certificate courses) shall be evaluated and graded as follows:-

Excellent (A) = 2 units
Very Good (B+) = 1.5 units
Good (B) = 1 unit
Satisfactory (C) = 0.5 unit

12.3 Compendia
Compendia should be sent out to reviewers for assessment of their quality and awarded as follows;

Excellent (A) = 3 units
Very Good (B+) = 2 units
Good (B) = 1.5 Units
Satisfactory (C) = 1 unit.

12.4 Extension Materials, Patents, Teaching Manuals and Software
12.4.1 Positively evaluated publications in the form of other forms of extension materials such as manuals shall be awarded 1 unit if graded A, B+ or B and shall be awarded 0.5 if graded C.
12.4.2 Patents and Commissioned Computer Software shall be awarded 2 Units.

12.4.3 For purposes of the review process implied here, fliers and brochures do not constitute extension materials worth being used for promotion.

12.5 Consultancy Reports
Reports of Consultancies registered with SUA’s Consultancy Unit(s) shall be considered for promotion and if positively evaluated ($A, B+ or B$) they shall be awarded 0.5 units. Such reports need to be supported by positive acceptance by the clients.

12.6 Book Reviews
Review of books shall be used for promotion and if positively evaluated it shall be awarded 0.5 units.

SECTION 13:  TEACHING EFFECTIVENESS
13.1 Students’ assessment of teaching by academic members of staff is mandatory and shall be taken into account in their assessment of the teaching effectiveness. Special forms shall be used for this exercise (Appendix 7).

13.2 The students’ assessment shall be considered alongside that of the Peer Review Team formed from within or outside the Department for assessing teaching effectiveness of staff. Assessment by the Peer Review Team shall also use a special form (Appendix 8).

13.3 Teaching effectiveness as evaluated by students and the Peer Review Team shall be scored as follows:-

<thead>
<tr>
<th>Excellent  ($A$)</th>
<th>$=$ 2$ units</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Very Good ($B+$)</td>
<td>$=$ 1.5$ units</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Good  ($B$)</td>
<td>$=$ 1$ unit</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Satisfactory \((C) = 0.5 \text{ unit}\)

Poor \((D) = 0.0 \text{ unit}\)

To obtain the above grades one must have taught the normal work load prescribed \textit{per annum}. For those whose teaching load is less than the prescribed, one will score half of the respective units.

A letter of warning will be written by the Deputy Vice Chancellor (Academic) to those Academic members of staff who score “D”.

13.4 Teaching units acquired during the year of review shall be used in the promotion exercise and hence shall contribute to the cumulative units.

13.5 Units acquired prior to the year of review will not be used in the promotion exercise and hence shall not be used in contributing to the cumulative units.

13.6 For candidates vying for promotion to positions of Lecturer or Research Fellow or Librarian and who will be on studies during the third year of review, teaching units for the 1\textsuperscript{st} or 2\textsuperscript{nd} year will be considered for promotion.

\textbf{SECTION 14: ASSESSMENT AS A RESEARCHER}

14.1 Assessment as researchers shall be based on the level of participation in research projects, attraction of research funds, publications and supervision of special projects and postgraduate.

- \textit{Excellent will be awarded to staff who is serving as Project Leader; and has attracted research funds and/or has} published 1 or 2 papers in a year. Supervision of undergraduate and/or postgraduate students will be an added merit.

- Very Good be awarded to a candidate who is a partner in research project(s); has participated in attracting research funds and has published at least one paper. Supervision of undergraduate and/or postgraduate students will be an added merit.

- Good be awarded to one who has published paper(s) without having funded projects OR is actively involved in supervising at least 2 undergraduate and/or one postgraduate student.

- Satisfactory be awarded to one who is not involved in research including not being involved in supervising students.

SECTION 15: ASSESSMENT OF TUTORIAL ASSISTANTS AND ASSISTANT LIBRARIAN TRAINEES IN TERMS OF RESEARCH, CONSULTANCY AND OUTREACH ACTIVITIES

15.1 TAs/ALTs should be assessed in terms of their participation in seminars, tutorials and practicals by students as it applies for other cadres (60% marks).

15.2 They should also be assessed by mentors in terms of conduct and academic performance (40 marks) of the mentor. This thus calls for the need to officially assign mentors when TAs are recruited and whose roles shall include but not limited to providing a two-year guidance to candidates.
15.3 With the exception of Veterinarians Tutorial Assistants, other Tutorial Assistants/Assistant Librarian Trainees should not be assessed in terms of research, outreach and consultancy.

15.4 Tutorial Assistants who are veterinarians are required to work in the clinic for one year; during which they will also be required to participate in seminars, tutorials and practical. Performance in the clinic will be assessed by supervisors in the clinic and the appointed mentors whereas participation in practicals, tutorials and seminars will be evaluated by students.

SECTION 16: OTHER GUIDELINES PERTAINING TO STAFF REVIEW AND PERFORMANCE

16.1 Academic members of staff who have stagnated for more than six years in one rank should be encouraged by the Deputy Vice Chancellor (Academic) to be more active in research and publishing. This will be done in collaboration with the Principal/Dean/Director and Head of Department.

16.2 Individuals who are eligible for promotion but are not promoted should be informed as to why they were not promoted. Heads of Departments, Deans/Directors/Principals and Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Academic) shall share the responsibility of informing the members of staff concerning the decisions made at different stages of staff review.
16.3 Individual staffs are allowed to request for review of their cases to the Chairman of Appointments and Human Resource Management Committee (Academic) if not satisfied with grounds advanced against his/her promotion.

16.4 An academic member of staff (TA or Assistant Lecturer) who registers for a Master degree must obtain a minimum GPA of 3.5 or an average of B for unclassified degrees. For graded Theses and Dissertations, the grade should not be lower than B where applicable. For ungraded Theses and Dissertations, the decision of the University which assessed it will be respected, i.e., there will be no new assessment.

16.5 It is mandatory that any staff reporting back from Master Degree studies to submit both original and copies of academic transcripts and certificates. After submission the staff should be informed in writing on whether his/her performance meets the guideline 16.4 above or not and his/her fate. Those whose performances do not meet the guideline 16.4 above shall be liable for termination.

16.6 Academic staff at any level who are registered for higher degree and fail in their studies, this includes staff who fail to submit original MSc and PhD certificates and copies of Thesis within one year of their completion of studies as implied in the Contract Agreement between Staff and SUA shall cease to be members of the academic staff of the Sokoine University of Agriculture. Such candidates shall be liable for termination.

16.7 Except in exceptional cases, newly recruited Assistant Lecturers and Assistant Librarians should not be above the age of 35 years. The aim is to recruit young persons who can be molded and nurtured academically and professionally.

16.8 Filling of the annual confidential report forms is mandatory for staff including those on study leave and leave without pay. Staffs who do not submit their annual confidential report forms without satisfactory reasons in a given year, that particular year will not be counted when considering them for promotion.

16.9 Presentation of inaugural lectures by Professors is encouraged in order to stimulate research vibrancy and motivation. Members will be facilitated in monetary terms to enable them to effectively prepare and deliver their lectures.

16.10 Letters of commendation shall be given to those who have acquired at least three publications over and above the minimum number of units required for promotion to a given rank but have not stayed for more than three years in their present ranks since last promotion. Such a staff shall be awarded a double salary increment if one has not reached the maximum of the respective scale.

16.11 In all cases involving staff in training, promotion shall be effected up to a Lecturer level. Staff who are on study leave and are involved in teaching at SUA shall be remunerated accordingly as it applies to the existing Heavy Teaching Load rates. Their teaching roles will not contribute to their promotion.

16.12 Staff on leave without pay and who are involved in teaching at SUA may be considered for promotion as it applies in Part VII; subsection 26.8. However, all other staff who are not involved in teaching during the year of review shall not be eligible for promotion.

16.13 Staff who fail to register for PhD studies within five years after completion of MSc/MA studies after being given an opportunity by the University and without compelling reasons shall be liable for termination.

16.14 No Staff shall be re-categorized beyond Lecturer/ Research Fellow/ Librarian level after acquiring a PhD qualification.

24.2 SUA shall strive to make budgetary allocation for sabbatical leave for its staff.

25.0 Sabbatical Report
25.1 Every staff member shall, on completion of the Sabbatical leave activity, submit to the Chairman AHRMC (Academic) through the respective Head of Department and College Principal/Faculty Dean/ Institute and Centre Director and DVC (Academic), a comprehensive report describing the work accomplished.
25.2 Reports shall be submitted to the Chairman AHRMC (Academic) within three months of completion of the sabbatical leave activity.

25.3 Disciplinary action will be taken against staff members who do not adhere to the approved programme of sabbatical leave activities or fail to submit the sabbatical leave report within the stipulated deadline.

SECTION 26: LEAVE WITHOUT PAY

26.1 Staff intending to request for leave without pay should submit their request six months prior to the intended date of departure. This is intended to allow the University to process application for replacements.

26.2 Staffs who join organizations/institutions that have formal agreements with SUA will be allowed to work in such entities for up to five years. Such staff will be required to resume for duties and work for at least 10 years before being granted permission for another round of any form of leave without pay.

26.3 Staff working with organizations/institutions that have no formal links/agreement with SUA but which provide added value in SUA’s missions in terms of facilitating funding for research, consultancy and training, be allowed to work in such organizations for two years but up to five years under the condition that renewal of leave without pay after the initial two years will be based on evaluation of benefits to SUA. The Department/College/_Faculty/Institute/Centre will be required to submit evidence of SUA’s benefits emanating from the employment of the staff on leave without pay.
26.4 Staff joining organizations for which SUA has no formal links and for which there are no direct benefits, then such staff be allowed to work for up to two years and should be required to come back and work for at least four years before another round of leave without pay can be considered.

26.5 Staff appointed by the President of the United Republic of Tanzania, the leave without pay will remain open until the end of the appointment and staff who replace them shall be employed on contract terms of two years.

26.6 Staff appointed into the government/public system under the non-presidential appointment system, their leave without pay be granted for a maximum of 8-10 years.

26.7 Leave without pay of up to five years excludes Staff appointed within the government appointment procedures to serve in the administrative positions in universities. Such staff will be allowed to request for leave without pay to match with durations of their appointment (if it is within the five years).

26.8 For consideration for promotion, staff on leave without pay will only be eligible if the position is justified and approved by the AHRMC (Acad). In such situations, the candidate will be paid living and transport expenses and hence shall not be paid teaching allowance as it applies to Part-time staff. In addition, such staff should have the approved normal teaching load depending on ones position.

26.9 Staff who take up teaching assignments without the position being justified and hence working on voluntary basis will be treated as Part-time lecturers.
26.10 Staffs on leave without pay are not entitled to salary and other fringe benefits.

26.11 Under this arrangement, staff who work outside SUA for three years be required to work with SUA for six years and for the staff who would have been granted four years of leave without pay has to resume duties for eight years before being considered for another request for leave without pay.

26.12 Staff wishing to continue with their new jobs beyond the duration of their permitted period will be deemed to have lost the position at SUA but may re-apply if a vacancy is available at SUA.

SECTION 27: POSTDOCTORAL FELLOWSHIP

27.1 Eligibility
Staff with PhD qualifications and who have acquired such qualifications within the last five years.

27.2 Guidelines for Postdoctoral Research Fellowship
27.2.1 Staff can be engaged as Postdoctoral Research Fellow for up to a maximum of five years if working within SUA. Such staff shall have no restrictions in taking Leave without pay or Sabbatical leave.

27.2.2 Staff who wishes to take up such fellowships outside the University shall be required to report for duty at SUA after completing their PhD studies and shall be permitted to take such positions for a maximum of two years. These staff shall not be permitted to take Sabbatical Leave or Leave without pay within five years after engagement as Postdoctoral Research Fellows.

27.2.3 Upon completion of Postdoctoral Research Fellowship, staff shall be required to service their training bonds prior to resigning or terminating employment with SUA.

27.2.4 Where the fellowship position pays only stipend, SUA will continue to pay salaries and other fringe benefits.

27.2.5 Those receiving full salary from the Sponsor and not just a stipend from the sponsor will for financial purpose only be regarded as being on Postdoctoral fellowship Leave without pay.

27.2.6 Eligible SUA staff shall apply to the Chairman of Appointment and Human Resource Management Committee (Academic) through the Heads of Departments/Principals/Deans/Directors and DVC (Academic). The applications should be supported by letters from Project Leaders or Partners and the Heads of Departments and project documents. The nature of the postdoctoral research engagements and their contributions to SUA research capacity should be given utmost consideration.

27.2.7 For staff who intend to take up engagement outside the University system, their applications must be supported by letters of Project Leaders and Heads of Departments or Institutions, with the nature of engagement and remuneration packages clearly spelt out. In addition, the applications should spell out clearly as to how such engagements will contribute to enhancing research capacity at SUA. SUA shall have the final say as to whether the staff qualifies for the awards of the postdoctoral research fellowships.

27.2.8 Under no circumstances will teaching in a given Department be allowed to suffer as a result of staff members taking Postdoctoral Research Fellowships. Hence, the interest of the University shall supersede one’s interests.

27.2.9 Staff on Postdoctoral Fellowships shall be required to submit progress reports to the Deputy Vice Chancellor (Academic) every six months and fill annual confidential forms. Failure to conform shall warrant disciplinary action.

27.2.10 Upon completion of the appointment, the Postdoctoral Research Fellows shall be required to submit comprehensive reports and the postdoctoral research documents to the AHRMC (Academic) through Heads of Departments, Principals/Deans/Directors and DVC (Academic) within three months.

SECTION 28: VISITING PROFESSORS/LECTURERS SERVING IN OTHER INSTITUTIONS UNDER THE INTER-UNIVERSITY COUNCIL OF EAST AFRICA (IUCEA)

28.1 Eligibility
28.1.1 Staff with PhD and Masters Qualifications and who have acquired such qualifications at least after three years from completion of the PhD or Masters study.

28.1.2 The staff must have carried out teaching or research activities for at least three years.

28.2 Guidelines
28.2.1 Staff can serve as Visiting Professors at any other Institution for up to a maximum of one semester. Such staff shall have no restrictions in taking semester off so long as he/she has no courses to offer in that particular semester.

28.2.2 Staff shall be required to service their training bonds prior to serving as Visiting Professors/Lecturers.

28.2.3 SUA will continue to pay salaries and other fringe benefits.

28.2.4 Eligible SUA staff shall apply to the Chairman of Appointment and Human Resource Management Committee (Academic), through the Heads of Departments/Principals/Deans/Directors and DVC (Academic). The applications should be supported by letters from hosting Institution stating the terms and conditions of engagement.

28.2.5 Under no circumstances will teaching in a given Department be allowed to suffer as a result of staff members serving as a Visiting Professor/Lecturer in another Institution. Hence, the interest of the University shall supersede ones interests.

28.2.6 Upon completion of the service as a Visiting Professor/Lecturer, the staff within one month after the engagement shall submit a report approved by the hosting University.

29.0 REVIEW

These guidelines/ criteria may be reviewed from time to time as need arises.
PART EIGHT: APPENDICES

APPENDIX 1: GUIDELINES AND PROCEDURES FOR RECRUITMENT OF ACADEMIC MEMBERS OF STAFF ON PERMANENT TERMS

(Made under section 1)

SOKOINE UNIVERSITY OF AGRICULTURE

1. The Departments/Sections/Colleges/Faculties/Institutes / Centers in collaboration with the Office of the Deputy Vice Chancellor-Academic will prepare adverts which will eventually be sent to at least two popular newspapers. The adverts will also be uploaded into the SUA website and posted on local (SUA) notice boards.
2. For the purpose of upholding fairness amongst applicants, the qualifications of the positions must be clearly articulated to allow calling candidates with same qualifications (i.e. BSc/BA) only for interviews.

3. The office of the Deputy Vice Chancellor – Academic shall, upon receiving letters of application, forward them to respective Departments/Colleges/Faculties/Institutes/Centres/Directorates for the purpose of short listing.

4. The Principal/Dean/Director shall immediately contact indicated referees for reference letters. For the purpose of the recruitment exercise, Deans, Directors and Heads of recruiting Colleges/Faculties, Institutes, Centres and Departments, respectively shall not serve as referees of applicants. Other staff in the College/Faculty, Institute, Centre or Department may serve as referees but shall not form part of the interview panel composed as in indicated in section 7 subsection 1. Panelists shall also declare interest where applicable in order to assist in composing an impartial panel.

5. After short listing the applicants, the Departments/Colleges/Faculties/Institutes / Centres/ Directorates shall submit a list of those short listed and the criteria used to allow the Office of Deputy Vice Chancellor (Academic) to approve calling and holding of interviews.

6. The interviewees shall be called/contacted through advertisement in daily papers (news media) as well as by both formal letter s/emails and where applicable also through phone calls.

7. The respective Principal, Dean or Director shall appoint an Interviewing panel comprising the following members:

(i) The Chairperson who shall be a Senior Faculty/Institute/Centre Member of staff in the Rank of Associate Professor or Professor but from outside the prospective department

(ii) Four Departmental/Section academic staff including the Head of Department/Section where applicable.

(iii) Three members of staff from outside the Department/Faculty/Institute/Center who are experts in the field.

(iv) One Communication Skills staff from the Faculty of Science

(v) The College/Faculty/Institute/Directorate Human Resource Management officer who shall serve as Secretariat
8. Candidates must submit original certificates, transcripts and other relevant documents during the interview session.

9. The interview process shall consist of three stages as follows:

(i) Stage 1 will require each applicant to present a short lecture that is open to all staff within the university.

(ii) Stage 2 shall involve each candidate sitting for an English proficiency test to be offered by the Language unit.

(iii) Each candidate shall be interviewed by interview panelists.

10. The Chairman of the Interviewing Panel shall thereafter submit all relevant documents to the Appointing Authority (Dean/Director) for onward transmission to the Chairman of Appointments and Human Resource Management Committee-Academic N.B: For an interview to be conducted there should be five members of the panel. This excludes the Faculty Human Resource Management Officer.
